

Code of Conduct

Welcome dancers!

In an effort to make Trilogy Swing 2022 a safe and fun event for everyone, we have a Code of Conduct that all attendees and participants are required to observe, agree to, and follow.

It is pretty simple and straightforward, and it is essentially based on treating your fellow attendees, our staff and event team, and the hotel staff with consideration, mutual respect, and appreciation.

Here are some things to remember when at the event:

- Entry to the event requires compliance with the Health Safety Policy in effect for the weekend
- No one will be admitted to the event space without registering and signing a Liability Waiver Form
- Entry, participation, and access to event space and activities will be in accordance with the pass that each individual purchases. No one will be allowed to enter or participate without an appropriate pass.
- Trilogy Swing is for everyone regardless of race, age, dance ability, sexual orientation, gender/gender identity, disability, physical appearance, religion, etc. Please treat everyone with courtesy, value, and show them the same consideration you would want for yourself ..... or better yet, a loved one!
- Be respectful of those you interact with, both on and off the dance floor.
- Respect the boundaries of the person you are dancing with. If you are unsure, ask!
- Avoid teaching on the dance floor, unless it is welcomed and/or requested.
- If someone declines your invitation to dance, respect their decision.
- If you experience unsafe or disrespectful behavior, please seek out a Trilogy Swing staff member to make us aware of the situation and for help. We are so happy to have you here and with your help, we can ensure that this is an event that everyone can enjoy.
- Attendees are required to abide by, adhere to, comply with and conduct themselves in accordance with all Hotel policies, to include:
  - room occupancy limits (as per any applicable room reservation Terms & Conditions)
  - Concierge Lounge access and use
  - No room brokering
  - No outside alcohol allowed in the convention center or event space(s)

Any violation of the Code of Conduct will result in consequences and appropriate disciplinary action being taken. Depending on the severity of any unacceptable actions, this may include something as simple as discussing an incident or behavior in an effort to rectify and resolve a situation or more extreme measures up to and including expulsion from the event as well as being banned from attending future events conducted by R&C Enterprises of NC and/or Carolina Westie Productions.

In the event of a situation, please contact a member of Event Team Management Staff through the Registration Desk or the Event Directors (Rick Dauss and Cindy Dauss)

This abbreviated Code of Conduct is inspired by and based on the Code of Conduct adopted by Dance Jam Productions (DJP), Inc.

Thanks to Dave Moldover, Kay Newhouse and the DJP Team/Organization for both their work and efforts that went into the development of it and for giving us permission to use and adapt it at Trilogy Swing!

Please see the registration desk for the full Code of Conduct that will be enforced at this event.
